

Here are the terms and conditions :

We can finalise all the details now. I will be asking you for a few pieces of information, which may be used to assess your application in the following ways :

- Credit checks with the credit reference agencies on you or your establishment
- Statistical methods to evaluate your credit worthiness
- Any other third party references

Credit reference agencies may keep a record of the check we carry out and this record may be used by other organisations in making future credit decisions about your establishment or you and members of your household and for preventing fraud and tracing debtors

In the event that your request is accepted, you will receive the detailed Terms and Conditions of agreement

In any event, we will keep information about you only for as long as is appropriate for the above purposes or required by law

You will receive your American Express card acceptance agreement within the next 5 working days

Please take time to read the Terms and Conditions of the agreement for card acceptance, as your first submission will be deemed to be an acceptance of your agreement, you will get a letter of confirmation with the copy of the agreement for your reference only

Please note, this can take up to 10 working days

There is a joining fee of £75 (or £125 for internet trading or by mail) that will come out on the first transaction. After that it will just be the EDC rate which you can find more information on by calling 0127 367 5533 (then press 0 when the automated voice starts)

Please note that if you are strictly business to business you will need to call this number to set up your account : - 0800 169 2901
